ITEM 11 – INSERT

During the reporting period, I continued to provide advice to the National Security Council of Georgia (NSCG) regarding strategies for communicating their positions and views to the international community, concerning the policies and activities of the government of Georgia including foreign policy.

I also advised NSCG senior officials and Government of Georgia officials about formulating their message as well recommending particular means of communications and outreach, e.g., op-eds, media appearances, distribution of positions papers and the like. I assisted NSCG in drafting op-ed articles, speeches and position papers to be disseminated or given by NSCG officials. In particular, I prepared speaking notes for the President of Georgia for his remarks at the German Marshal Fund Annual Conference in Brussels, Belgium in March 2009, and for his participation in the European Union Summit on the Eastern Partnership held in Prague, Czech Republic, in May 2009. I also assisted in the drafting of a report issued by the Government of Georgia discussing the background of the 2008 conflict between Georgia and the Russian Federation.

In addition, I spoke over the telephone and met in person with U.S. media representatives (as itemized in Item 12) to explain the position of the Government of Georgia with respect to Georgia's relations with the Russian Federation, other foreign policy issues and domestic political and economic reform. I also spoke over the telephone and met in person with U.S. Government officials (as itemized in Item 12) to explain the position of the Government of Georgia with respect to relations with the Russian Federation; domestic protests within Georgia; the political and economic reform plans of the Government of Georgia; and the trip of Vice President Biden to Georgia, which took place in July 2009.

The purpose of these activities was to promote and develop support generally for the foreign and domestic policies of the Government of Georgia in the international community, including Georgia's relations with Russia
